

THE ROLE OF ISLAMIC BANKING IN RESOURCE MOBILIZATION

Union of Arab Banks

2005

Contents

Introduction	5
I. Section 1: The Islamic Financial System: Performance, Challenges & Strategies for the Future.....	7
A. Chapter 1: Does the Islamic Financial System Design Matter?.....	9
1. Introduction	11
2. Why Do We Need to Design the Financial System? ...	13
3. How Is the Islamic Financial System Designed?.....	16
4. Principal-Agent Relationship.....	18
5. Islamic Financial Design and the Firm Capital Struc- ture.....	25
6. Conclusions.....	27
B. Chapter 2: Measuring the Efficiency of Islamic Banks: Criteria, Methods and Social Priorities	31
1. Introduction	34
2. Efficiency: concepts and criteria.....	37
3. The Ratio Analysis.....	39
4. Econometric Models: Theoretical Framework	42
5. Efficiency Models and Islamic Banks.....	46
6. Efficiency Criteria and Social Priorities.....	54

7. Concluding Remarks	57
C. Chapter 3: What Makes Islamic Finance Institutions Successful compared with the Traditional Informal Meth- ods?	61
1. Introduction	64
2. Interventions in Credit Markets Institutions: A Review	65
3. Interest rate Policy	66
4. The function of Non banks in Sudan	67
5. Experience of Bank Restructuring in Sudan and Re- source Mobilization for Development	74
6. Conclusion	79
D. Chapter 4: Islamic Banking and Financial Systems: Future strategies facing the challenges towards market leadership	83
1. Introduction	86
2. How are IBFs creating ripples?	88
3. Sustainability of IBFs growth	89
4. Challenges to the IBFs - Practitioners' Perspectives	98
5. Frameworks for Future Strategy Formulation	108
6. Limitations of the study	111
7. Conclusion	111
II. Section 2: Islamic Banks & Resource Mobilization	121
A. Chapter 1: "Excess Liquidity Problem: The Case of Is- lamic Banking in Indonesia"	123
1. Introduction	124

2. Development of Islamic Banking in Indonesia	126
3. The Financial Soundness of Islamic Bank in Indonesia	128
4. Excess Liquidity Problem of Islamic Bank in Indonesia	131
5. Conclusion	134
B. Chapter 2: Islamic Banking System in Malaysia; Per- formances and Challenges	135
1. Brief Background	137
2. Islamic Banking in Malaysia	138
3. Pre-requisite of Islamic Banking	139
4. Regulation of the Islamic Banking in Malaysia	140
5. What is Islamic Banking?	140
6. Syariah Concepts of Islamic Banking	141
7. Performance of the Malaysian Islamic Banking (1998- 2003)	143
8. Core Challenges to the Islamic Banking in Malaysia ...	144
9. Liberalisation of Islamic Banking in Malaysia (2001- 2010)	146
10. Where Does Malaysian Islamic Banking Go From Here?	147
11. Conclusion	148
III. Section 3: International Experiences in Successful Isla- mic Banking & Effective Resource Mobilization	151
A. Chapter 1: Role of Different Institutions in Resource Mobilization for Islamic Bank; Indonesian Experience	153
1. Introduction	155

2. History of Islamic Banking 1992-1999.....	157
3. Change in Policy.....	160
4. Ulama Council.....	167
5. Role of Other Institutions.....	169
6. Effect of Mobilization.....	172
7. Conclusion and Recommendation.....	178
B. Chapter 2: The Role of Islamic Financial Institutions in Resource Mobilization and Poverty Alleviation in Bangladesh: An Empirical Study of Rural Develop- ment Scheme (RDS) of Islami Bank Bangladesh Lim- ited (IBBL).....	185
1. Introduction.....	191
2. Objectives of the Study and the Methodology of the Study.....	193
3. Micro-credit Programs for the Poor in Bangladesh: An Overview.....	195
4. A Critical Appraisal of the Secular Micro-credit Pro- grams in Bangladesh.....	198
5. The Rural Development Scheme (RDS) Undertaken by Islami Bank Bangladesh Ltd. (IBBL): An Example of Islamic Micro-credit Programs.....	202
6. Major Findings of the Study.....	204
7. Analysis of Branch Level Viability of the RDS Based on Criteria relating to financial cost-benefit of a pro- ject.....	212

8. Analysis of Branch Level Viability of the RDS Based on Assessment Criteria.....	214
9. Borrowers Viability with Special Reference to Resource Mobilization and Poverty Alleviation.....	223
10. A Comparison between Islamic MFIs and Secular MFIs Based on Empirical Study of RDS of IBBL....	225
11. Conclusion and Policy Implication.....	228
C. Chapter 3: Mobilization of Islamic Funds by Foreign Banks in Malaysia.....	243
1. Islamic Banking in Malaysia.....	245
2. Foreign Banks in Malaysia.....	245
3. Islamic Banking Scheme (IBS).....	246
4. IBS at Foreign Banks.....	247
5. Islamic Funds Mobilization.....	249
6. Financial Ratios- ROA.....	251
7. Conclusion.....	254
IV. Section 4: Islamic Banking and New Financial Instruments.....	255
A. Chapter1: Risk of Sukuk Structures; Implications for ResourceMobilisation.....	257
1. Introduction.....	259
2. Sukuk Issues.....	260
3. Sukuk Structures.....	261
4. Risks Involved in Sukuk Structures.....	261

5. Enhancing Resource Mobilisation Role of Sukuk Through Risk Management	262
6. Embedded Options Sukuk	262
7. Pricing Embedded Options	264
8. Conclusions	264
B. Chapter 2: Issues of Implementing Islamic Hire-Purchase in Dual Banking Systems: Malaysia's Experience	265
1. Introduction	267
2. Objectives	267
3. Islamic Hire-Purchase in Malaysia	268
4. Concept & Operation	268
5. Conventional Hire-Purchase: Compared	269
6. Issues in the Operation of Islamic Hire-Purchase	270
7. Conclusion	272
C. Chapter 3: Role of Leasing in Mobilising Financial Resources	273
1. Introduction	275
2. Leasing: A Unique Islamic Financial Product	275
3. Securitization of Lease	281
4. Governmental Issue	286
5. The Conclusion	289
D. Chapter 4: Providing For the Resource Shortfall for Poverty Elimination through the Institution of Zakat in Low Income Muslim countries	291

1. Introduction	293
2. Methodology and Data Set	300
3. Extent of Poverty In Low-Income Muslim Countries ..	301
4. Resource Shortfall For Poverty Elimination Under $1 and $2 International Poverty Lines.....	302
5. Potential and actual collection of Zakat	303
6. Resource Shortfall and Potential Zakat Collection.....	308
7. Conclusion	310
V. Section 5: Re-engineering of Islamic Banks.....	321
A. Chapter 1: Re-engineering of Arab Banks Co-opera- tion between Islamic and Conventional Banks.....	323
1. Changing Dynamics - Arab Market.....	325
2. Regional Developments - Islamic Banking.....	327
3. Theoretical Comparison.....	329
4. Intensifying Competition.....	331
5. What is Driving the Changes?.....	332
6. The Banking Paradigm Shift is inevitable.....	333
7. The Age of the Consumer.....	334
8. Re-engineer yourself.....	335
9. Leverage Technology.....	345
10. Delivery Channel Explosion.....	348
11. Redefine Organization.....	353
12. To Conclude.....	357
B. Chapter 2: Rating Islamic Banks	359

1. Data and Investment Consult-Lebanon.....	361
2. Taqyim.....	362
3. Methodology assessing risk.....	362
4. Islamic Finance; the Sovereign Risk.....	366
5. Ratings; Basel II.....	374
6. Basel II Dictums.....	375
7. Operation Risk Management Landscape.....	376
8. Construction of the internal measurement approach as proposed in Basel II.....	380
9. Basel II - At a Glance.....	387
10. Banks- Roles and Responsibilities.....	389
11. Banks- Developing an Efficient Risk Management Struc- ture.....	390
12. Basel shortfalls for IFI.....	402